THE ASIATIC QUESTION.

Last evening's meeting undoubtedly pronounced the opinion of the majority in Victoria when it approved the petition to parliament asking for further restrictions on Asiatic immigration. It is reasonable to expect that these petitions will be largely signed here, and that the sentiment of the public will thus be emphatically made known to the legislators at Ottawa. The latter can hardly refuse the request for restriction if it is joined in by the large majority of the people of this province, who have every right to ask for so reasonable a measure of self-protection. The people of the other provinces have no practical experience to tell them the extent of the evil which threatens; therefore the greater is the need for an earnest and emphatic expression of opinion from British Columbia. The steps necessary towards this are not simple; all that is needed is to give every facility for the attachment of signatures to the petitions and doubtless the citizens will give their attention to the matter.

SHARE LIABILITY.

Another contribution to the mining stock discussion has been made by Mr. J. A. Fortin, of Rossland, who writes as follows to the World:

"My attention has been drawn to a letter from Judge Turner of Spokane which appeared in your issue of the 19th inst., dealing with the mining laws of the State of Washington, in which he explains that under those laws mining property may be bought at any valuation fixed by the owners and fully paid up stock issued in payment for it. He also points out the usual course followed in forming these corporations. I beg to point out that there is one part of the statutes of Washington State which he has overlooked and which is causing considerable uneasiness in our minds when advising on the status of companies organized as he there explains. Section 1588 of the Codified Statutes of Washington provides for the incorporation of companies, as Judge Turner has fully explained, and paid up shares may be issued for the mining claim to any amount according to the value placed on the valuation on their property, but by referring to that section you will see that it only provides for the sale in this way of an interest in any mining claim in this state. You can easily understand the contention that this statute does not apply to any mining claim in the province of British Columbia, unless section 1588 has been amended. If it has not been amended it is quite clear that any interest in a claim in British Columbia cannot be bought or company organized, as the Washington companies purport to be, for buying claims in British Columbia and paying for them under this section of the statutes by paid up shares. The remedy for this condition of affairs, which there is no denying is most serious and threatening, is to amend our statutes dealing with companies by inserting a clause allowing the directors from time to time to sell and dispose of fully paid up and non-assessable shares at a less sum than the face value whenever they may be authorized by the majority of the shareholders of the company, and further providing that the shares so issued should not be liable for or charged with the payment of any debts due by the company. A somewhat similar clause has been inserted in several of the special acts incorporating mining companies in this province, and certainly if that privilege is extended to companies who have called to obtain a special act it should be granted to the public. At present there is great uncertainty as to the liability of our shareholders in American companies who operate mining claims in British Columbia, and if the matter were tested in our courts and it should be decided, as it probably would be, that the shareholders were liable for any debts incurred by the company for work done in British Columbia, it would cause a collapse in mining shares of companies incorporated in Washington. You will agree with me that it is better to have proper restrictions protecting the public when dealing with these companies, but, at the same time, if by a slight amendment of our own laws we can organize and control mining companies under the laws of British Columbia, it would be much preferable."

It would be rather presumptuous for a layman to give an opinion as to what is or is not the law on the subject, but when lawyers differ it seems perfectly safe to subscribe to the dictum that there is "great uncertainty." And, naturally, when there is great uncertainty we must conclude that there is a necessity for some legislation that will remove the uncertainty. Only one circumstance remains to give rise to doubt, namely the tendency of our present legislature to mix and muddle whatever it attempts to make clear. The painful thought will obtrude itself that if the house went to work on the problem the last state of the law would be worse than the first.

Mr. Heintzen should endeavor to induce his friend Mr. Earle to introduce anti-Chinese legislation in the Dominion House.

If every man present at last evening's meeting would make it a point not to employ Chinamen or buy anything from one directly or indirectly, the Chinese question would be partly solved.

Having made it clear that he is opposed to Chinese labor, Mr. Heintzen should now turn his attention to his colleagues in the provincial legislature and the men he supports for the Dominion House. If they could be converted there would be a few canneries, railways and collieries in which Chinese would not be employed.

There was a good deal of truth in what Mr. Macmillan said about Victorians electing men to parliament with the idea that they would solve the Chinese question, only to find when they got there that they devoted most of their time to an endeavor to better their own positions, forgetting all about the Chinese and the workmen.

The conclusion of the correspondence between the governor-general and the Tupper ministry is thus reported: "Holding these views, Sir Charles Tupper said no recourse was left to him than to tender the resignations of himself and his colleagues." From which one is naturally led to infer that if Lord Aberdeen had allowed Sir Charles and his colleagues their own way they would have paid no attention to the judgment pronounced by the people on the 23rd of June. A good deal has been said about Sir Charles' fondness for office, but the public would hardly have supposed that a kick from the governor-general as well as from the people was necessary to make him let go.

THE POINT ELICE BRIDGE.

To the Editor—I would like to ask those who are opposed to the construction of a pile bridge at Point Ellice, what scheme they have that is better, or have they any scheme at all. Now, supposing that Mr. Tupper is successful in introducing his steel bridge by-law and that the people ratify it, (which I am sure they will not do if it is proposed to build it at Point Ellice) it will probably be a year before that bridge could be completed. What are the people going to do in the meantime? I consider that it is money well spent to build the pile bridge, if it is only to be used for a year. The public must have access to Victoria West, notwithstanding the opposition of a couple of our aldermen.

B. C. FISHERIES AND COLONIZATION.

To the Editor: According to a review in the minute from the Imperial Treasury, addressed to me by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, from June 10, 1891, the loan of £150,000 was to be advanced to the result of the government of British Columbia in three installments of £50,000. The first installment to be advanced as soon as the act providing for the carrying out of the scheme under consideration and containing the necessary financial clauses, has been passed by the legislature of British Columbia, in a form satisfactory to Her Majesty's government. My calculations submitted to the provincial government and approved by them and by the Imperial Treasury, were based on the transfer of 1000 families. The division of one-third of the loan (£50,000) I set down at $242,500, which allow an apportionment to each family of $242.50. That sum provided ample means, as I demonstrated, to supply the outfit, fares from the home of the colonist to the location selected for him and his family on the coast of British Columbia, where a residence would be ready to receive him, as well as fishing appliances to enable him to commence work on arrival, so that without loss of time or discomfort he might begin to earn a living and be able to pay back the amount borrowed by him, which could be done, to a moral certainty, by the very small payment of about one dollar weekly from each family. To minimize the risk of loss to the provincial government it was suggested that the life of each adult fisherman should be insured for at least the amount advanced from the loan, and to give the colonists a deeper interest in the concern, that each head of a family should be allowed to become a shareholder to a small amount, in the commercial company proposed to be formed to market the fish, etc.

CHAMBERLAIN AND LAURIER.

ATTENDEE for a Meeting in London in October.

Toronto, Aug. 28.—It is expected in official quarters that Premier Laurier will visit London late in October, or early in November, when Hon. Joseph Chamberlain will be back from his private visit to his wife and relatives at Salon, Mass.

London, Aug. 28.—The Birmingham Post, Mr. Chamberlain's organ, announces that Hon. Mr. Chamberlain has specially arranged to return in time to meet Hon. Wilfrid Laurier at the capital of the empire.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 28.—This city experienced a terrible fire yesterday. It started in North Water street and over $300,000 worth of property was destroyed. Insurance, $150,000.

Buffalo, Aug. 28.—The American Association for the advancement of science has concluded its labors and departed. The next session will be held in Detroit, beginning Aug. 9, 1897. This date was decided upon so early so that members of the association might be enabled to attend a meeting of the British association, which is to be held at Toronto immediately after the Detroit convention.

Wichita, Kan., Aug. 28.—One hundred and fifty squaws and 300 full-blooded Indians and half-breeds had a pitched battle in the streets of Wewoka in the Seminole reservation, Indian Territory, on Thursday. Three full-bloods and two half-breeds were killed and several wounded on both sides. A reign of terror ensued. Troops from Fort Carry were summoned and their prompt arrival prevented a great slaughter, as the Indians refused to prepare for a more rigorous attack on the half-breeds. It is thought now that the troops will be able to preserve order. At the last meeting of the Seminole council a law was passed ordering the immediate expulsion of all white from the reservation. The efforts of the Indian police to put into effect the order of expulsion caused the trouble.

AN ELECTRICAL STORM.

Remarkable Sight for the Dwellers on Lake Erie.

On Saturday night, those who happened to be at Port Stanley, witnessed one of the grandest electrical storms ever seen. It started about 7 p.m., and continued far through the night. There was little rain, but considerable wind, causing the waves to break with violence on the beach. As the battle of the elements wages chiefly to the southward, over the lake, there was an unobstructed view from the shore. The blackness and darkness stretched across the sky, forming a contrasting background for the electrical display. From point to point "leaped the live thunder." Sheet lightning flashed in white and rose color, and shadow of violet. The "forked lightning" was grand in the extreme. It played horizontally and perpendicularly. It made straight bars and zigzags of white heat. One effect was a bar that split off into three divisions, as in the case of some rockets. Another conformation was that of many simultaneous dividing lines, as of a map in outline. Another effect was that of a nearly perfect wheel. All this to the accompaniment of a continuous undertone of thunder, augmented now and then by a reverberating crash. A spectacle more sublime one has seldom the good fortune to witness.

As if the imagination had not been sufficiently appealed to, the night brought another sensation. At about half-past ten a flash of blinding whiteness was seen to run its irregular course and immediately after the ghostly outlines of a schooner in flames presented themselves to the spectators. As the ship was a good many miles out, and its features could be seen only through banks of cloud, the effect was of the most ghostly character, as if it had been some phantom ship like the "Flying Dutchman" of the old legend. In about an hour the flames seemed to grow dim, and the outlines of the vessel were presently lost to sight. An attempt was made to get out the life boat, but it was found impossible to face the sea. No trace of the missing vessel has yet been found, and it is impossible to tell her name, her destination, or the fate of those on board.—London Advertiser.

COAL CONSUMPTION.

An industrious trader, writing in a French Review, has been at the pains to ascertain what is the annual consumption of coal on the railways and steam companies of the country, and he has worked out a total of 3,782,850 tons. This, he tells us, would make a pyramid 510 feet high and 804 feet at the base, or nearly 70 feet above the height of the great pyramid. Then he goes on to calculate that if all this coal were loaded in trucks the train would be 1625 miles long—or, as if a nice feeling for the Franco-Russian alliance he puts it—the distance between Paris and St. Petersburg. If this train had to travel at the rate of 185 miles an hour, it would take between three and four days to pass a given point. The railways of the whole world consume, he asserts, on the faith of statistics which are doubtless fairly accurate, nearly 63,000,000 tons of coal, which would make 25 "Great Pyramids," but he does not draw any moral from these figures except that a great deal of carbonic acid is thus precipitated into the atmosphere.—Westminster Gazette.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul's Volks Zeitung, I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short time was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. Wm. Keil, 678 St. Paul, Minn. ## A BABY HIPPOPOTAMUS.

The steamer Calabar, from West Africa, has brought into Liverpool a baby hippopotamus. The animal is about three or four feet high and about four or five feet long, and is only three months old. It is so tame that with a good deal of care it permits strangers to rub its nose. The capture of the hippopotamus was brought about in an ingenious manner. It seems that it was born in the upper reaches of the Gambie river, West Africa. It is customary for the male to eat the young, and to prevent this the mother usually secretes her offspring. The present infant was placed by the mother in a hole dug on the banks of the river, being afterward covered by weeds and grass. This operation was watched by the natives of the village adjacent, and when the mother went to the opposite side of the river to feed they pounced on and secured their youthful prize. This was done by covering the baby with a net and securing it with ropes. They brought their capture with all possible speed to the village and sold it to a trader, who was a passenger in the Calabar. The animal is in good condition, though its hide bears traces of the ropes that bound it when first captured, and when its coat was tender. Its quarters on the voyage were a large crate, and its chief food grass and vegetables.—London Daily Telegraph.

SKENE LOWE.*CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mr. H. F. Heisterman Passes Away This Morning After a Brief Illness.

For Over Thirty Years a Prominent Business Man of Victoria.

A vacancy, which it would be hard to fill, was made in the business community of Victoria this morning, when death claimed Henry Frederick Heisterman, the well-known real estate, financial and insurance broker. Mr. Heisterman had been ill for about three weeks, but so serious results were anticipated, but he was at his office a few days ago and this morning he was reported to be better. Shortly before noon, however, he began to sink, and passed peacefully away, surrounded by his family.

For many years Mr. Heisterman has been prominent in every movement that tended to the further development of Victoria, in which he took a pride. The public school system received a great deal of attention from him, and as a school trustee for several years he devoted much time to the schools. He also took considerable interest in the British Columbia Board of Trade, having acted at different times on the council of that organization. Without seeking any public office, the deceased had done much to make the city what it is, and in public as in private he was generally respected.

Mr. Heisterman was born in Bremen, Germany, on July 22nd, 1832. After completing his studies in his native city he entered mercantile pursuits. At the age of 18 he removed to Dunelm, where he entered a commercial house. Five years later found him in the commission business in Liverpool, where he remained until 1862, when hearing of the gold excitement in British Columbia he set sail for the Pacific Coast. Arriving here in August of that year, the deceased joined a party bound for the Strickland river, but the expedition was a failure and the gold seekers soon found themselves back in Victoria. For six months Mr. Heisterman conducted a reading room in the St. Nicholas building, and afterwards entered into partnership with John Banks, as wholesale paint and glass dealers. In 1864 he established the real estate business which he conducted so successfully up to the time of his death. Deceased had for twelve years been grand treasurer of the grand lodge A. F. &amp; A. M. and the funeral will be held under the auspices of that organization. It will take place at 2:30 on Tuesday from the Masonic Temple and at 3 o'clock from St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. He was also a member of the Pioneer Society. A widow, three daughters, the eldest of whom is Mrs. D. R. Ker, and two sons survive him.

THE SAN PEDRO.

Mr. Whitelaw to Arrive in Two Weeks to Remove the Wreck.

The owners of the San Pedro wreck will begin the work of removal in the course of two or three weeks, when Captain Whitelaw and his men will arrive from San Francisco to begin operation. Messrs. Dunsmair, agents for the owners, have been advised that effect. The Dominion government, it is understood, have been in correspondence with the owners on the subject, urging upon them the necessity for prompt action.

The statement made in behalf of the late government that legislation was passed at the last session of parliament authorizing the government to act, was not in accordance with the fact. The position is the same to-day as formally, and before the government can do anything to remove the wreck a bill must be passed. It is not probable that this would be done at the present session, but Hon. Mr. Davies, in correspondence with a gentleman in Victoria on the subject, has stated that if the wreck is not removed in the meantime, prompt and effective measures will be taken next session. If the wreck is removed by the owners at once, as now seems probable, and the weather continues favorable, the beacon and light may be placed on Beethle ledge before the rains of fall and winter begin. The Liberal government evidently means business.

KILBRANNAN SOLD

Purchased by Capt. Barneson of Port Townsend for Four Thousand Dollars.

Two C. P. R. S. cameras, China and Maph to Arrive Here Next Week.

There was a large number of shipping men at Auctioneer Byrnes' rooms this morning, when the fine iron ship Kilbrannan, 1572 tons, was sold to the highest bidder. Bidding was everything but spirited. The first offer was $3000, and she was finally sold to Captain Barneson for $4000. Since grounding at Point Wilson in February last fully $12,000 has been spent in hauling the Kilbrannan off, for temporary repairs and taking her to Esquimalt. The consensus of opinion among shipping men is that the Kilbrannan is a bargain at the price paid as her sails and rigging are almost worth the amount. Captain Barneson has not decided what to do with his new vessel, but she will probably be repaired here.

A report was circulated in the city last evening to the effect that the schooner Beatrice of Victoria and the Vancouver Beatrice had been seized in Behring Sea. It is said the schooner Jessie of Port Angeles spoke the tug Lorne off Cape Flattery and told Capt. Langley of the seizures. The news was not conveyed to either the owners of the schooners or the Customs house officials here.

Mr. James Griffith, local manager at Seattle of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha steamship company is expected here this evening to make arrangements with R. P. Ritchie &amp; Co. for wharfage room for his company's steamers. The company have leased some very neat advertising matter.

Besides the regular liner Empress of China, another C. P. R. steamer is due here next week. She is the Hupeh, which has 150 tons for Victoria, 50 for the Sound, 100 for Portland and a large quantity of tea for the coast. The China has 150 tons of freight and 50 Chinese passengers for Victoria.

PERSONAL.

Jay H. Adams, of Spokane, is at the Driford.

Capt. Barneson, of Port Townsend, is in the city.

R. Seabrook returned from the Mainland last evening.

The members of the Portland Cricket team are at the Driford.

Thos. Bryant and E. Merman, Wellington, are at the New England.

Miss Blanche Tibbals, of Port Townsend, is visiting Victoria friends.

Arch. Dick and W. B. Dennison, Nanaimo, are registered at the Oriental.

A. Goodby, Portland, and R. G. Penn, Vancouver, are at the Oriental.

G. D. Davidson, Vancouver, and G. H. Bell, San Francisco, are at the New England.

Leslie Cullon, of the U. S. Treasury Department, came over from the Sound last evening.

L. Casey and Frank McQuillen were passengers on the Churner from Vancouver last evening.

Sir Roderick Cameron, the Misses Cameron and Arthur F. Street are guests at the Driford.

Capt. Roberts, of the steamer William, and Mrs. Roberts came over from the Sound this morning.

Alderman and Mrs. W. G. Cameron leave on the Rithet to-morrow night to attend the carnival at Vancouver.

Miss Beatrice Hatheway, says the St. John Globe, has left for Victoria, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Peters.

Mrs. G. A. Walker leaves to-morrow for England accompanied by her daughter, whom she will leave there at school.

Bishop Perrin, Ven. Archdeacon Scriven and Judge Harrison left this morning for Winnipeg to attend the Anglican synod meeting.

Of Value to You

Is the knowledge of our business valuable to you or not? Suppose we investigate. How much do you know about clothing? Do you know what ought to go into a suit to make it worth the price the dealer asks? Isn't your judgment regarding the value of the suit based entirely on what you have to pay for it? Don't you see that you are in the hands of the dealer? All clothing merchants ought to be honest. Some are. Some clothers mark two or even three paces on their goods. We don't. Some dealers sell on credit. We don't. We mark our prices in plain figures, one price to all, and sell for cash every time. Which is the fairer and better way? We think ours is. Don't you?

ALBERNI MINES.

Trail and Boundary Creek Eclipsed in Size by the Great Sarita Ledges.

Extensive Bodies of Pyritic Ore on Barclay Sound—Work in Progress.

The Duke of York Hydraulic Mine—Extensive Work Done—Other Mines.

The excitement and boom at Rosland, Kootenay, owing to the development of bodies of pyritic ore carrying the precious metals has attracted thousands of miners and a number of capitalists to the camp, which, it may be said, has become world famous. This condition of things is likely to be repeated on the West Coast of Vancouver Island, which so far has had but little attention paid to it. The enormous deposits of similar ore to that contained in the Le Roi, War Eagle, Isola and other Rosland mines, discovered in Barclay Sound, are a revelation to the few experienced mining men who have recently inspected them. It is no exaggeration to say that no ore bodies of such magnitude have yet been found in Kootenay.

THE SARITA CLAIM.

On the Santa Marie Island, in Barclay Sound, within a stone's throw of ocean navigation three great ledges of pyritic ore have been uncovered, varying in width from four feet six inches to thirty feet. This ore cannot be distinguished by an expert from that of the Le Roi or War Eagle. A mile and a half from Santa Marie Island, on Sarita river, and about a mile from its mouth, the wash of the stream disclosed similar ore in the bank; which is the base of a mountain three thousand feet in height. Prospecting work upon this body has disclosed the walls, showing a vein about 270 feet in width and running into the mountain for miles. Upon this ledge ten miner's claims, each 1,500 feet square, have been located, some of them by Rosland miners, who state that no such body of ore is to be found in the Trail Camp. As they prove that the silver contents are greater and the gold value from the surface far higher than some of the best Rosland mines showed at that point. The Trail Creek ore ran from two to three and a half per cent. in copper, those of Santa Marie Island and the Sarita assay from six to 15 per cent. This ledge is being opened up by a tunnel, now in 51 feet, and showing ore all the way. The tunnel will be extended 20 feet further, when a shaft will be sunk 100 feet.

On Copper Island, which lies in Barclay Sound about three miles from the mouth of the Sarita river, there are a number of croppings of pyritic ore along the beach, which assay two per cent. in copper and 80 in gold. Rising from the shore is Copper Mountain, which is from 900 to 1,000 feet in height. The summit of this mountain is capped for acres in extent with black iron, and down the sides the gale of last spring, which prostrated thousands of trees, and the fires of recent date, have exposed masses of metal of similar character, interspersed with sulphurets. Nine claims have been located on Copper Island, and the limited amount of work done is of a very encouraging character.

Situated as these great bodies of ore are in close proximity to ocean navigation, with labor cheaper than at interior points, with coke delivered at $1.25 per freight from Comox, and with limestone and iron for fluxes adjacent to the property, the enormous advantages of Barclay Sound over any other camp in British Columbia must be apparent to mining men. Victorians who wish to invest in mines need not go to Rosland, as they have a greater and in all probability a more profitable field for investment right at their doors.

Barclay Sound is a sea of islands, and the shores are lined with precipitous mountains right down to the water's edge. These mountains, the valleys between and the banks of the small streams that flow into the Sound on the north and the south shores, are clothed with forests of fir and cedar, matted together by a dense undergrowth. Moss, dead leaves, fallen trees, and decaying vegetation cover the ground with an almost impenetrable carpet, and it is only where fire erosion water has cleared away the debris, or fire has swept over the mountain side, that the character of the rock can be discovered without most laborious effort. The district is a large one, and it is not improbable that the metalliferous character of the ore above described may be common to the whole region. It is known to prevail on Granite Creek, where a number of claims have been located, and on the head waters of the Sarita as well. But prospecting, particularly away from the streams, is very difficult and very slow work. It will take years to fully explore the shores of Barclay Sound alone, to say nothing of the unknown mountains whose peaks tower above the coast range a few miles inland. There is a magnificent field here for discovery. It is convenient in Victoria, can be reached at small cost, and the weather for nine months, in the year is favorable. What better work can a young man engage in, especially one who is out of work and has the strength and the requisite knowledge? It is absurd to suppose that the only mineral claims in the district have been taken up; there are as big fish in the sea as ever were caught and as good mineral ledges on Barclay Sound still undiscovered, as have yet been located. Prospecting is hard, laborious, often disappointing, healthful, independent work; and while many blanks are drawn there are still, perhaps, as many prizes won as in ordinary commercial occupations.

CONSOLIDATED ALBERNI.

Mineral Hill, in the McLaughlin range, is about thirteen miles from Alberni at the head of China creek. The "hill" is from 3,000 to 4,000 feet above sea level, rising abruptly from the end of the wagon road (1,400 feet) for a distance of one and a quarter miles to the Consolidated Alberni mine. Over a zig-zag trail cut in the mountain side on Mineral creek, to a height of 2,300 feet, the supplies have to be packed, and down the same distance the ore will be conveyed to the three stamp mill now in course of erection. The Consolidated Alberni is being developed systematically. The shaft has been tapped by a tunnel at a depth of about seventy-five feet, where the vein was found to maintain its width of 15 to 18 inches, with the walls clearly defined. The ore at that depth is highly mineralized and there is every indication that its richness will increase as greater depth is attained. The ore is free milling and has assayed from $20 to $200 per ton. It is a white quartz, containing pyrites of size from 2 to 3 inches. These sulphides are of sufficient value to pay for saving on cinders. The company are at present taking into the mine a 30-horse power boiler, and expect to have the three-stamp mill which is now on the ground in operation in the course of five or six weeks. The mill will be erected at a point 2,300 feet below the mine, and the ore for the present will be packed over the trail a distance of a mile and a quarter. No such enough time was taken to visit all the surface showings in this district, but enough was seen to justify the prediction that in the future the west coast of Vancouver Island will be marketing a quantity and quality of ore that will surprise even those who are enthusiastic.

OTHER LOCATIONS.

While the Consolidated Alberni is the only mine on Mineral Hill on which any extensive development has been done, there are many claims on which the owners are doing assessment work. George Brown, one of the pioneer prospectors, has completed assessment work on the Champion and Missing Link and will apply for a crown grant. With six men he is now doing the assessment work on the Adelaide, Jack Taylor, Belcher, Crown Point and Vancouver claims. On the Mountain Rose, which is owned by a Vancouver firm, a tunnel is being run by six men, Capt. Simons, of the Wellington, has five men are working on the Ace of Spades, owned by Henry Saunders, Messrs. Hochback, Gerrard and claims prospectors. A. E. Goins is surveying the Last Chance, one of the Quadra Co.'s claims, and the Last Dollar, Halifax and American Bys. Mr. Geo. Huff is working three men on the Rival and three on the Maid of the Mist, and on Granite Creek, nine miles down the canal from Alberni, assessment work is going on on several claims. Thus it will be seen that there is considerable activity in the mining districts of Alberni, and although most of the work is being carried on in compliance with the mining law it is none the less evidence that the owners, who are nearly all men of great faith and little capital, have confidence in the richness of their claims. The success of the Consolidated Alberni, which has plenty of capital and energy behind it, will give an immense impetus to the district and establish beyond all question the permanency of Mineral Hill as a mining centre.

THE DUKE OF YORK.

The Duke of York is a hydraulic mine, Messrs. G. A. Kirk and A. J. O. Gentry, of this city, being largely interested in the property. It is about seven or eight miles from Alberni, on China creek. The company own three and a half miles along the creek and 10 claims on each side. Under the management of Mr. M. W. Loveridge, an experienced California hydraulic miner, work was commenced at the end of March last. A vast amount of work has been done. A flume, 340 feet with a grade of one in sixteen, and out and a substantial manner, all the lumber being cut on the ground. At the upper end, for a distance of sixty feet, the flume is carried along the side of a perpendicular cliff, suspended by strong chains fastened to steel drills driven into the solid rock. At other points it is carried over trestles sixty feet high. From the bulk head to the monitor, the steel pipe is a twenty-two-inch six-inch nozzle with a force that makes the gravel and boulders dance before it like straws in a gale of wind. A Derrick (Loveridge's patent) having a 90 foot arm and a capacity of six tons, is operated with the utmost ease by a one and a quarter-inch jet of water striking with 30-horse power the flanges of a water wheel under the mast. The sluice boxes and bedrock flume have a grade of eight inches in sixteen feet, and are strong and substantial. At the time of inspection 21 men were at work, and there was sufficient water for one and a half monitors, although in the winter and earlier in the summer there will be an ample supply for four six-inch nozzles playing continuously on the banks of gravel. Thus far nearly $30,000 have been expended in buying the land and preparing for hydraulic mining. The manager, Mr. Loveridge, has personally superintended the work and has succeeded in placing the property in a condition to pay the enterprising owners handsomely if the precious metal is in the banks in sufficient quantity, and that fact was demonstrated by careful prospecting before the undertaking was commenced. The bush fire in July destroyed several buildings, injured the flume, and seriously retarded operations, but it was not altogether an untimely evil, since it cleared away the undergrowth and rendered a more destructive conflagration impossible. The company is now in excellent shape to prosecute the work, and having land enough to last for many years it is sincerely to be hoped—and it is confidently expected—that their enterprise will be amply rewarded.

WHEN OTHERS FAIL.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS RESTORE HEALTH AND STRENGTH.

A Well Known Young Lady in Nanaimo Gives Her Experience—So Weak That She Could Not Go Up Stairs Without Resting—Her Friends Thought She Was in Consumption—Now the Picture of Health and Strength.

From the Beaver, Nanaimo, Oct.

Among the young ladies of Nanaimo there is none better known or more highly esteemed than Miss Mary L. Byrnes. Indeed her acquaintance and popularity covered a more extended field, as she is a travelling saleslady for the Robinson Corset Co., and has many customers on her route which extends from Ottawa to Oshawa. How this young lady happens to be the subject of this article is due to the fact that she has recently undergone a most remarkable change through the use of those wonderful little messengers of health, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When the reporter of the Beaver called to make inquiry into her cure, he was met at the door by the young lady herself, whose rosy cheeks and healthy appearance gave no indication that she had undergone a prolonged illness. The reporter mentioned his mission and found Miss Byrnes quite willing to tell the particulars of what she termed "an escape from death." In reply to the query "what have Dr. Williams' Pink Pills done for you?" she replied, "why, they have done wonders. I feel like a new creature now. For eight years I was weak and miserable, and at times I could not walk. I was greatly troubled with indigestion, and frequently could not keep anything on my stomach, not even a glass of milk. I had dizzy spells, severe headaches, and my complexion was of a yellowish hue. My kidneys also troubled me, and in fact I was all aches and pains. In going up a flight of stairs I had either to be assisted up, or would have to rest several times before I got to the top. At times my hands and feet would have no more warmth in them than lumps of ice. On one occasion while stopping at an hotel in Kingston, I felt down in a faint. The landlady found me in this condition and sent for a doctor, who, after bringing me back to consciousness, gave me medicine to take. He told me that my system was so badly run down that it was imperative that I should have absolute rest. His medicine had no beneficial effect that I could see, and I tried a number of other doctors with no better results. I became so low that I cared for neither work nor pleasure, and my friends thought I had gone into consumption. I was at this juncture to-day will show you what a wonderful change they have wrought in me. I continued taking the pills for three months, and before discontinuing them every ache and pain had disappeared. I cannot speak too highly for this wonderful medicine, and I am eager to let the fact be known for the benefit of other sufferers."

Mrs. Byrnes was present during the interview and strongly endorsed what her daughter said, adding that she believed they had saved her life. The experience of years has proved that there is absolutely no disease that is due to vitiated condition of the blood or shattered nerves, that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not promptly cure, and those who are suffering from such troubles would avoid much misery and save trouble by promptly resorting to this treatment. Get the genuine Pink Pills every time and do not be persuaded to take an imitation or some other remedy from a dealer who for the sake of extra profit to himself, may say "just as good." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail.

A BIG CARGO OF RABBITS.

"Rabbits are cheap to-day," ought to be a legend outside some London shops a few days hence. For there is rapidly approaching our shores a steamer which is bringing to the home markets no fewer than 150,000 rabbits, the largest consignment of its kind ever despatched from Victoria. It has been shipped by the agricultural department of the colony, and the minister of agriculture personally inspected the shipment, and satisfied himself, it is said, that some half a million rabbits were packed in the refrigerating chambers. Some recent consignments of Australian rabbits did not stand the voyage as well as was expected, and it will be interesting to see whether this colonial colonial contribution to our commissariat department is delivered in an estimable condition.—Westminster Gazette.

EAGLE AND DRAGON

"Old Glory" Entwined With the Yellow Flag in Honor of Chang.

Chinese Viceroy Welcomed with Boom of Guns and Steam Whistles

A Great Naval Display in New York Harbor Yesterday Morning.

New York, Aug. 28.—Promptly at 8 o'clock this morning the colors were hoisted on board the fleet of American war ships at anchor off Thonkinville, States Island, with usual ceremonies, the band of the flagship New York playing "The Star Spangled Banner." Shortly afterwards the crews of all the ships were placing the finishing touches upon the naval display for the glory and honor of Uncle Sam and preparatory to welcoming Li Hung Chang, the great old man of China, the statesman of many titles, in an appropriate manner.

The sun was shining royally. Shortly after the announcement at 9 o'clock that the St. Louis was sighted east of Fire Islands, throngs of people, many persons bearing picnic baskets, were traveling across on ferries or by other roads to Fort Wadsworth, Fort Hamilton, Bay Ridge, Quarantine, Tompkinsville and other points from which the arrival and greeting of the distinguished guests of the nation might be witnessed to the best advantage. Other crowds flocked to the battery, others still stationed themselves at an early hour in the vicinity of the American line dock, where the traveler was to land.

It is doubtful if New York has ever presented a grander sight than it did this morning. Anchored there in stately strength were all the war ships of the new navy of the United States, and the Chinese statesman at the review of Spithead and after he visited Queen Victoria at Osborne, was treated to a fine display of war ships, 47 ships, 27 battle ships and cruisers, 20 torpedo destroyers being there along for his inspection. At the American line pier were stationed four troops of the Sixth Cavalry U. S. A., and a detachment of naval reserves, the former being detailed to escort the great Chinaman, up Broadway to the Waldorf hotel and the latter acting as a guard of honor at the dock, which was appropriately decorated for the occasion, United States flags and the yellow standard of China, with its black dragon rampant, being hoisted.

When the St. Louis was sighted it was seen she was flying, besides her American colors, the Chinese national flag at her mast head. The launch was again brought into play and the welcoming party went on board the St. Louis, where they were first received by the officers and then presented to the distinguished guest, who was getting his first glimpses of the American shores. The passengers, much interested in the reception, stood aloof, making a great circle about the party.

The ambassador's suite were his two sons, Lord Li, and Mr. Yu, all secretaries of the legation, Dr. Ivan and Dr. Mah, physicians of the ambassador, several secretaries, attendants, eleven servants of military class, headed by Major Yen and nine other servants, all attired in the costume of China, ranging from the peacock feather down to the blue jacket and plum-colored and brown trousers.

As the St. Louis neared the American fleet the first gun of the salute in honor of the Chinese visitors was fired by the flagship New York, gun by gun, until 21 shots were fired. The New York was the only warship to fire a salute, but the others dipped their colors as the St. Louis passed. This was watched with the greatest interest by the Chinese ambassador and his suite. The St. Louis moved up the harbor in a sort of triumphant procession and was greeted on all sides by the tooting of steam whistles and other salutes, and eventually reached her dock at 1:30 p.m. The yellow standard of China was hoisted by the crew of the ship, and the wharf as the bow of the big steamship neared the landing place of the American line. Li Hung Chang stood the voyage remarkably well, and was not at all seasick.

The Chinese party were received at the pier by a guard of honor of marine infantry, and the immense crowd of people was with difficulty kept back from the approaches by a large police force. The Chinese standard was hoisted down from the American line steamer at 1:50 p.m., as the Chinese ambassador landed on the wharf and entered the carriage in attendance. The procession left the pier headed by a detachment of the Sixth Cavalry having another detachment of the same regiment in the rear. The whole, preceded by a detachment of mounted police, moved away amid loud cheering. The procession moved to West street and Bowling Green, up Broadway to Fourth street, thence through Washington square up Fifth avenue to the Waldorf hotel, "the route, guarded by police, was densely packed with spectators. A quantity of hunting was displayed on all sides and among the Chinese standard was continuously seen.

WILLIS AT HIS POST.

He Conferred With President Cleveland On The Annexation Policy.

Honolulu, Aug. 28.—Per steamer Albatross to San Francisco.—Minister Willis has resumed the duties of his office. It is rumored that his recent visit to Washington City was for a conference with President Cleveland on the annexation policy. It is said President Cleveland empowered Willis to enter into negotiations for either annexation, a monarchical form of government, with Kahlani on the throne, or an American protectorate, choice of either form of government to be left to the people to settle by vote. Willis refused to discuss President Cleveland's intentions until the return of President Dole, who is now absent on the island of Maui.

SCHOOL QUESTION

The Settlement Will be Entirely Satisfactory to the Majority.

One Condition of the Agreement—Disgranted Conservatives Making Noise.

Toronto, Aug. 28.—An Ottawa special to the Star says: The statement which Hon. Mr. Scott, secretary of state, made in the senate yesterday, in speaking of the Manitoba school question, has been the subject of the bag pretty thoroughly with respect to its character and settlement. At least it should satisfy the people of Manitoba that cordiality is as good as a door nail and that the lines of settlement will be almost entirely satisfactory to the majority.

When so statement a champion of the separation of the church and state as the Canadian Baptist approves the proposed settlement it is safe to predict there will be little objection raised by any quarter, save the extremists in the hierarchy.

Hon. Mr. Scott, who is the Irish Roman Catholics' representative in the cabinet, frankly admitted that remedial legislation was unworkable and impossible. I hear that one condition of the settlement is that in the districts where the population is mixed and the children cannot speak English, the bilingual system be permitted, that is, that the teacher must understand both languages so as to impart the knowledge to the children. This may be regretted, but it is difficult to see how it can be avoided, as without it some children would be obliged to do without education altogether.

It is quite evident from the way things are running in the house the session will extend for thirty or forty days. All conceivable questions can be brought up by going into supply, and, as the Conservatives have many more to cheer, it may be taken for granted that the session will be prolonged. For instance, the entire time of the house yesterday was taken up in discussing a side issue raised as to the cutting off the heads of officials who took part in the elections. It was made perfectly clear by the government that no money would be shown officials who participated in the elections beyond voting and talking in the ordinary way to friends, etc. The Conservative speakers made a big noise about the action of provincial government officials, but as two wrongs do not make a right, the government will pay no heed to such arguments.

BUSINESS FAILURES.

Elgin Sewing Machine and Bicycle Company Assign.

New York, Aug. 27.—The failure of John Bloodgood & Co., has been announced on the stock exchange. The only surviving member is John D. Slayback. The death of the senior member, John Bloodgood, was recently announced. He had been a member of the exchange since 1858. Slayback had been a member since 1866. The firm has been one of the most prominent in Wall street. Charges have been brought against the head of the firm since his death, in connection with his joint trusteeship of the Lattimer estate.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—The Elgin Sewing Machine and Bicycle Company made an assignment in favor of DeWitt Campbell. The assets are estimated at $150,000; liabilities, $100,000. Employees to whom the company owes $4,000 threatened attachment proceedings, and this forced the assignment, the officers say. The Avenue Savings bank, a small private institution, at the corner of Thirty-first and Michigan avenues, assigned this morning to the Chicago Title and Trust Company. Since the failure of the Haymarket bank there has been a steady withdrawal of deposits, and for the protection of depositors the assignment was made. The deposits are $125,000.

FOUR AT A BIRTH.

An Ontario Lady's Contribution to the Population.

Bridgeport, Ont., Aug. 28.—Mrs. O. H. Strickles, wife of a farmer on Clapboard hill, outside of Stratford, gave birth to four children, three girls and a boy. The largest weighs seven pounds, the smallest five. The total weight of the quartette is 24 pounds. All are healthy and will probably live. Mrs. Strickles has given birth to five other children, two of whom are twins.

BIG CRICKET MATCH

Victoria Scores Ninety-Three and Portland Has Sixty-Six With Wickets Down.

Choynski Defeats McAuliffe at San Francisco Last Evening—Other Events.

There was a slim attendance at the international cricket match at Calendon Park this afternoon, due, no doubt, to counter attractions. Mrs. C. W. Lawrence, the captain of the visitors, winning the toss sent "the home team" to the wicket, which was a very fast one. A. G. Smith and C. E. Pooley were the first to face the bowling of Lawrence and Bourne. Smith was bowled by Bourne when the score was at 7 for 6 runs. Morley then joined Pooley and stayed until 17 was scored when he was stumped, scoring 2. Capt. Pooley, R.M.A., following, staying until 22 was up when he was given out b.w. for 6 runs. Pooley was then bowled by Bourne, the score standing at 21. Barnes then came to the wicket staying until 48 was on the board, when he was bowled by a full pitched ball from Lawrence, being out for 10 runs. Lawrence bowled by Fenwick for 5. Willis had had luck being bowled by the second ball after hitting the first for 4. When 59 was on the board Loh was bowled by a full pitched ball from Bourne, after playing a beautiful innings of 34, not giving a single chance. Gooch's wicket also went down at 89. He was bowled by Fenwick for 9. Fox was then run out, the total for the innings being 93 runs.

Oregon commenced batting very badly, four wickets going down for 1 run. Willis taking three and Goward one. Lawrence and Scott, who then went in, were not separated until 40 was reached, when Scott was bowled by Gooch, who had replaced Goward. Gooch took Bell's wicket with the following ball. Lawrence and Walsh took the score to 63, when Walsh was run out. The score at the time of going to noon, being Victoria all out for 93 runs and All-Oregon 65 for 7 wickets.

THE KING.

CHOYNSKI BEATS McAULIFFE.
San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Last night's Choynski-McAuliffe fight resulted in favor of Choynski in the fourth round. Choynski assumed the aggressive throughout, fighting viciously. The third round ended with a vicious left jab from Choynski which staggered McAuliffe. In round 4 Choynski had the advantage and went at his man from the ring of the bell, smashing him with left and right drives on the jaw, and soon had his man groggy. One last right on the chin put the giant against the ropes, from which he reeled and fell to the floor. He looked to be able to get up, but evidently had enough of Choynski's swings and punches and so remained down until the referee had counted ten.

THE CAR.

GAUDAUR THE FAVORITE.
Toronto, Aug. 28.—A cablegram from London says that the Thames watermen are taking more than ordinary interest in the sculling contest between Gaudaur and Stanbury and are inclined to favor the Canadian style. Yesterday morning Gaudaur, accompanied by Wag Harding, rowed a speedy trial over the half course, the former easily distancing the Englishman.

Eddie Dorman now challenges Hantani to row him within three weeks for $250 a side, and posts a $200 forfeit.

LAWN TENNIS.

FOULKES DEFEATED.
Niagara-on-the-Lake, Aug. 28.—The great international tennis tournament began in earnest yesterday morning and is now in full progress. In the preliminary round of the men's singles, J. F. Foulkes, the B. C. champion defeated W. C. Grant, of Boston (6-1, 6-3), but in the second round was beaten by Fritz Ward, of Rochester (6-3, 6-2). The game was a sharp one, but Foulkes was handicapped by having a much inferior racket.

YACHTING.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S PRIZE.
London, Aug. 28.—It is announced that Emperor William will give a costly silver cup, designed by himself, to the winner of the yacht race to be held between Dover and Helleland, immediately after the celebration of the conclusion of the sixtieth year of the reign of Queen Victoria. A committee composed of Englishmen has been appointed to draw up rules for the yacht race. The race will be only open to British yachts of forty tons and upwards.

THE TRIP.

A STRANGE DEATH.
Green Bay, Wis., Aug. 28.—John Holmes, a well-known horseman of the western circuit, died of Pericarditis under the wire a dead man at the trotting meeting here yesterday. In the 2:16 trot Holmes held Peabody first to within 100 feet of the finish, then his head fell forward, the lines slackened and when the horse stopped after passing the judge's stand, Holmes was dead.

THE WHEEL.

EXAMINER RELAY RIDERS.
San Francisco, Aug. 28.—The Examiner relay riders arrived at Terrace, Utah, at 6 p.m. yesterday, 754 miles from San Francisco, five hours behind schedule time. The distance was covered in three days and six hours. Bad roads and a heavy rain storm delayed the riders.

HOPING FOR BRYAN'S SUCCESS.
Hindu and Parsee Bankers Want to Unload Their Silver Bullion.

London, Aug. 28.—In an interview printed to-day a leading Indian merchant, just returned from Calcutta, is quoted as saying: "American politics are just now of absorbing interest to Hindu and Parsee bankers and financiers as well as native potentates. All those possessing enormous hoards of silver, eagerly desire Bryan's election and the chance thereby afforded them to dump shiploads of silver bullion on the United States mint at double the price. So eager are they that they have heard well founded rumors that a fund has been formed to aid the free silver party, by supplying campaign literature. My informant is a man of such high commercial standing that I attach much importance to this information."

A Fibre Chamisole Ad.

Men as a rule care more for comfort than for style, still no man is averse to a neat well hanging coat that keeps its shape through all kinds of knocking around. This is one of the extras that Fibre Chamisole furnishes when used as the interlining in men's clothing. It not only makes garments thoroughly weatherproof, providing a beautiful warmth which cannot be penetrated by the severest wind or cold; but its flexible spring and stiffness make the coat or vest fit well and keep its proper hang until worn completely out. And the beauty is that it is so light you wouldn't know you were carrying anything extra around, and so cheap that it is in everyone's reach.
